Purpose:

The Indiana State Department of Health (ISDH), in conjunction with the Maternal and Children's Special Health Care Services Division (MCSHC), announces the availability of Federal and State funds to support implementation and/or expansion of appropriate and effective community-based programs that stress sexual abstinence and delaying pregnancy and parenting for teens.

All funding determinations for Indiana RESPECT projects are made pending allocation of funding to the Indiana State Department of Health (ISDH). Programs may be reduced or eliminated if funds are reduced or are otherwise not available to ISDH.

This announcement directly addresses Healthy People 2010 National Health Objectives which focus on reducing pregnancies among adolescent females aged 15 to 17 years; increasing the proportion of adolescents who have never engaged in sexual intercourse before age 15; increasing the proportion of adolescents who have never engaged in sexual intercourse between the ages of 15 and 17; and increasing the proportion of adolescents who have received formal instructions on reproductive health issues before turning 18 years old.¹

With this announcement, the Indiana State Department of Health Maternal and Children's Special Health Care Services Division is interested in partnering with local community organizations, schools, and agencies to implement programs which address locally determined priorities and needs related to sexual abstinence education and adolescent pregnancy prevention.

Background:

Despite the recently declining teen pregnancy rates in the United States, 4 out of 10 teenage girls get pregnant at least once before they reach age 20. This results in more than 900,000 teen pregnancies a year² and makes the United States the industrialized nation with the highest rate of teen pregnancy.³

Every day in Indiana, approximately 31 girls between the ages of 10-19 become pregnant.⁴

The number of pregnancies reported in Indiana in 2004 was 3,262 for adolescent females ages 15-17 (rate of 24.8 pregnancies per 1,000 female population) and 7,844 for adolescent females ages 18-19 (rate of 91.1 pregnancies per 1,000 female population).⁴ Eleven percent of births in Indiana were to females under the age of 20.⁵

Teenage pregnancies are more likely to result in infant death and other poor pregnancy outcomes such as low birth weight. Unintended pregnancy increases the likelihood of child and maternal illness. Social consequences can be measured in unintended births, reduced educational attainment and employment opportunity, greater welfare dependency, and increased potential for child abuse.⁶

A report from the National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy shows that Indiana teen (19 years of age and younger) childbearing costs taxpayers (federal, state, and local) at least $195 million in 2004. Most of the costs of teen childbearing are associated with negative consequences for the children of teen mothers. In Indiana, 2004 annual taxpayer costs associated with children born to teen mothers included: $37 million for public health care (Medicaid and SCHIP); $40 million for child welfare; $33 million for incarceration; and

$64 million in lost tax revenue, due to decreased earnings and spending. The costs of childbearing are greatest for younger teens. In Indiana, the average annual cost associated with a child born to a mother 17 and younger is $3,953.⁷

Every hour of every day, a teenager in Indiana contracts a sexually transmitted disease (STD).⁸

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, substantial progress has been made in preventing, diagnosing, and treating certain STDs in recent years, but there are still an estimated 19 million new infections occurring each year. Sexually transmitted diseases disproportionately affect adolescents and young adults, with one quarter of STDs diagnosed among 15-19 year-olds and two-thirds of cases occurring among 15-24 year-olds.⁵ The 2006 ISDH semi-annual (January-June) STD Morbidity Report indicates that among the 10-29 year-olds, there were 7,968 cases of chlamydia, 2,892 cases of gonorrhea, and 12 cases of syphilis. It is possible those numbers will double by the end of the year. If this happens, the 10-29 year-old population will account for approximately 90 percent of all cases of chlamydia, 80 percent of all cases of gonorrhea, and 38 percent of all cases of syphilis.⁸

Sexually transmitted diseases also generate an enormous economic burden due to direct medical costs for treatment of such infections. In Indiana, there are an estimated 304,200 new cases of STDs annually. The estimated economic burden associated with the treatment of the nearly 300,000 cases of STDs is $166.9 million annually.¹⁰

Eligibility Requirements:

All public or private not-for-profit organizations and agencies are eligible to apply. Grants will be awarded to applicants who demonstrate the capability of providing the proposed services and commitment to meeting the statutory requirements. Partnerships among applicants from the same geographic area are strongly encouraged.

Note: Those organizations that are currently CBAE (Community Based Abstinence Education) programs which are already currently funded by the Administration for Children and Families and any organizations who are receiving funds through a CBAE organization for abstinence education programming will not be eligible to receive funding for the implementation of Indiana RESPECT programs.

Selection Criteria:

Funding will be provided for the implementation and/or expansion of community-based programs through either Federal or State funds. Priority will be given to programs that 1) address the needs and assets of youth in your community, 2) are consistent with community values and resources, 3) focus on behaviors (e.g. abstinence until marriage or delayed sexual onset) leading to Healthy People 2010 objectives, and 4) identify and address risk and protective factors that influence sexual behavior.

Applicants must be familiar with the enclosed documents (see Appendix A) in their entirety to ensure compliance with all applicable requirements:

- Article 1 Sections 4 and 6 of the Indiana Constitution
- I.C. 20-8.1-7-21 AIDS Information
- I.C. 20-10.1-4-10 AIDS Instruction

- I.C. 20-10.1-4-11 Sexual Abstinence Education Instruction in Accredited Schools
- I.C. 20-10.1-4-15 Student Non-Academic Personal Analysis/Evaluation/Survey in the Classroom Setting
- P.L. 104-193 Section 510 Sexual Abstinence Education Definition
- P.L. 104-193 Section 104 Services Provided by Charitable, Religious, or Private Organizations

Federal Selection Criteria:

Federal funds are available from the Administration for Children and Families through the Title V Section 510 Sexual Abstinence Education Block Grant. Public Law 104-193, enacted August 22, 1996 added the Section 510 formula grant program to Title V of the Social Security Act. The purpose of Section 510 is to “enable the State to provide abstinence education, and at the option of the State, where appropriate, mentoring, counseling, and adult supervision to promote abstinence from sexual activity, with a focus on those groups most likely to bear children out of wedlock.”

Programs funded must provide instruction consistent with abstinence education as defined in the “Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996”, P.L.104-193. Under this announcement, abstinence education is defined as “an educational or motivational program which:

- Has as its exclusive purpose, teaching the social, psychological, and health gains to be realized by abstaining from sexual activity;
- Teaches abstinence from sexual activity outside marriage as the expected standard for all school age children;
- Teaches that abstinence from sexual activity is the only certain way to avoid out-of-wedlock pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, and other associated health problems;
- Teaches that a mutually faithful monogamous relationship in context of marriage is the expected standard of human sexual activity;
- Teaches that sexual activity outside the context of marriage is likely to have harmful psychological and physical effects;
- Teaches that bearing children out-of-wedlock is likely to have harmful consequences for the child, the child’s parents, and society;
- Teaches young people how to reject sexual advances and how alcohol and drug use increases vulnerability to sexual advances; and
- Teaches the importance of attaining self-sufficiency before engaging in sexual activity.”

ISDH/MCSHC recognizes that varying needs and priorities of local communities will result in the development of programs with significant variation. As indicated in the FY 2007 Application Guidance for the Abstinence Education Provision through the Administration for Children and Families, each element of A-H should be meaningfully represented in all grantee’s federally funded abstinence education programs and curricula. Programs and curricula may not be inconsistent with any aspect of the abstinence education definition. ISDH/MCSHC will monitor grantees for compliance with the above mentioned Federal abstinence education definition.

Instruction using these funds must encourage and support sexual abstinence and delaying pregnancy and parenting throughout the adolescent years until marriage. Federal funds may not be used to provide instruction regarding family planning, contraceptive methods, and/or disease risk reduction methods.

Federal programs must provide adolescents who may be or who may become involved in sexual activity with medically accurate information presented in the context that sexual abstinence throughout the adolescent years until marriage is recommended. These funds may not be used for the provision of medical services or medical supplies. Grantees may not teach or promote religion or provide religious instruction in either Federal or State funded programs (see Appendix B).

State Selection Criteria:

Funding will be provided for the implementation and/or expansion of community-based adolescent pregnancy prevention education programs which stress sexual abstinence throughout the adolescent years. State funds may, in consideration of locally determined needs and priorities, be used to provide programs which include instruction regarding family planning, contraceptive methods, and/or disease risk-reduction methods.

Funding will be provided for programs which model evidence-based programs that have been shown to be effective in delaying the onset of sexual intercourse, decreasing the incidence of sexual intercourse, and/or increasing the use of pregnancy/disease risk – reduction methods, including these characteristics:

- Focus clearly on reducing sexual behaviors that lead to unintended pregnancy or HIV/STD infection;
- Incorporate behavioral goals, teaching methods, and materials that are appropriate to the age, sexual experience, and culture of the students;
- Are based upon theoretical approaches that have been demonstrated to be effective in influencing health-related risk behaviors;
- Last long enough to allow participants to complete important activities;
- Provide basic, accurate information about the risks of unprotected intercourse and methods of avoiding unprotected intercourse;
- Employ a variety of teaching methods designed to involve the participants and have them personalize the information;
- Include activities that address social pressures related to sex;
- Provide models of and practice in communication, negotiation, and refusal skills;
- Select teachers or peers who support the program and provide them with training, including practice sessions;
- Encourage parental involvement in adolescents' sexual value development and decision-making; and
- Comply with relevant Federal and Indiana laws.

State funded programs must provide adolescents who may be or who may become involved in sexual activity with medically accurate information presented in the context that sexual abstinence throughout the adolescent years until marriage is recommended. These funds may not be used for the provision of medical services or medical supplies. Grantees may not teach or promote religion or provide religious instruction (see Appendix B).

Funding Availability:

These funds will be administered by the Indiana State Department of Health Maternal and Children's Special Health Care Services Division, Edward M. Bloom, Director.

Awards for both Federal and State community-based programs will be granted for a total 24-month period consisting of two (2) budget periods. The fiscal budget years for the State and Federal awards differ. The budget periods are:

State	1 st	12-month budget period	July 1, 2007 – June 30, 2008
	2 nd	12-month budget period	July 1, 2008 – June 30, 2009
Federal	1 st	12-month budget period	October 1, 2007 – September 30, 2008
	2 nd	12-month budget period	October 1, 2008 – September 30, 2009

Applicants may request up to $30,000 for the 1st 12-month budget period and up to $30,000 for the 2nd 12-month budget period. Neither Federal nor State funds from the 1st 12-month budget period will be allowed to carry over into the 2nd 12-month budget period.

The Indiana State Department of Health is committed to serving the broadest geographical range of applicants throughout the state possible. Efforts will be made to award grants in all geographic areas of the State, as well as areas that demonstrate the greatest need. Therefore, individual applicants will be allowed a maximum total Indiana RESPECT funding of $30,000 per 12-month budget period. Applicants may choose to complete applications for State Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Education funds or Federal Sexual Abstinence Education funds. School buildings will be considered as individual applicants.

Applicants are required to provide matching funds (cash and/or in-kind). Federal grantees must provide a seventy-five percent (75%) match for each budget period. The Administration for Children and Families is now requiring a 75% match on Title V Section 510 funds awarded to states. State grantees must provide a thirty (30%) match for each budget period. For example, if you are requesting the maximum of $30,000 per 12 month budget period, you will be required to provide $22,500 in matching funds per 12 month budget period if you are a federal grantee or $9,000 in matching funds if you are a state grantee. If you are requesting less than the $30,000, you will still need to provide either a 75% or 30% match of the requested amount. Appendix C provides a glossary of terms, including definitions of matching funds.

All funded programs will be required to participate in program monitoring and evaluation by ISDH/MCSHC staff or contract staff designated by ISDH. Specifically this evaluation would include a) administering a pre-and post-test (this will be provided to you by the Program Manager of Indiana RESPECT) to either all participants if a small to medium sized program, or, if a school-based program, to a reasonable sized sub-sample; b) identifying a possible control group in your community that will also participate by completing the pre-and post-test; and c) participating in direct observations and/or participant interviews.

All funded programs will be required to attend the Cultural Competence Workshop that is held through the Office of Minority Health at ISDH. Cultural competence is a set of academic and personal skills that allow us to increase our understanding and appreciation of cultural differences between groups. For more information on when these workshops will be held and to register for a workshop, contact Carolin Requiz, Director, Office of Minority Health by email at crequiz@isdh.in.gov or by phone at (317) 233-7596.

- Indicate a time period when the tasks or activities will be achieved.

Additionally, the tasks and activities should:

- Be related to Healthy People 2010 National Health Objectives;
- Be achievable with available program resources; and
- Be achievable in the funding period.

Section 5: Reporting Requirements

Submission of data is a requirement for Indiana State Department of Health, Maternal and Child Health Services grantees. Each program is required to submit data reporting forms every six months using the following forms: Form A: Unduplicated Count of Clients Served; Form B: Hours of Service Received by Clients; Form C: Program Completion Data; and Form D: Communities Served. Samples of Forms A-D and the process objective tracking form that is to be submitted with the above mentioned forms can be found in Appendix E. A form titled A-H Compliance will be used to monitor A-H Compliance for all federal grantees only. This form allows grantees to report on how the activities of the program are meaningfully addressing each element of the federal abstinence education definition. Federal grantees will be required to return this form along with the above mentioned forms every six months. A sample of this form is also included in Appendix E.

Section 6: Key Personnel (Form 6)

Section 7: Budget Narrative (4 page maximum) and Budget (Form 7 and Form 8)

The budget is an estimate of what the program will cost to implement. The Indiana State Department of Health, Maternal and Children's Special Health Care Services Division supports reasonable and necessary costs for grants within the scope of the approved projects. Allowable costs may include planning and evaluation; salaries; training; educational materials; educational equipment (infant simulators, videos, displays, models); media activities; in-state travel ($0.40 cents/mile); incentives; and consultant fees. Non-allowable costs include food, out-of-state travel, and general equipment and computer equipment (hardware and software) for the maintenance of the applicant agency. Non-allowable items may not be purchased with either grant funds or matching funds.

The budget narratives must include a justification for each line item (lines 1-7 on Forms 7 and 8). Each narrative statement should describe the specific line item, how the specific item relates to the program, and how the amount shown in the budget was derived. Cash and/or in-kind contributions (matching funds) should be identified as well. There should be a separate budget narrative for FY 2008 and FY 2009; please begin each budget narrative on a separate page.

Complete Form 7, FY 2008 Budget Summary, and Form 8, FY 2009 Budget Summary. Please do not substitute a different format.

The Total Project Cost must equal the sum of columns Matching Funds and ISDH Request Amount (maximum of $30,000).

In the column Matching Funds, indicate the total contribution (cash and/or in-kind) the applicant agency will expend for the proposed program. This contribution can include costs associated with salaries, educational materials, educational equipment (infant simulators, videos, displays, and models), media activities, in-state travel, incentives, consultant fees, or any expenses directly related to the proposed program. Applicants requesting federal funds are required to provide a minimum matching amount of 75% for each budget period (minimum of $22,500 per $30,000 each budget period) and applicants requesting state funds are required to provide a minimum matching amount of 30% for each budget period (minimum of $9,000 per $30,000 each budget period).

In the column ISDH Request Amount, indicate the cash amount of Indiana RESPECT funds being requested for the program. Please be sure to use the appropriate column (State or Federal) to report this information.

Section 8: Endorsements

Provide a minimum of three (3) current letters of collaboration describing the collaboration that will occur between the program and other community organizations to implement the proposed program (e.g. schools, hospitals, youth serving organizations, etc.).

Statement of Federal Compliance

The undersigned agrees to comply with all eight (8) components of the Federal definition for abstinence education as outlined below and which can be found on page 5 of the Indiana RESPECT Application Packet.

Programs funded must provide instruction consistent with abstinence education as defined in the “Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996”, P.L.104-193. Under this announcement, abstinence education is defined as “an educational or motivational program which:

- A. Has as its exclusive purpose, teaching the social, psychological, and health gains to be realized by abstaining from sexual activity;
- B. Teaches abstinence from sexual activity outside marriage as the expected standard for all school age children;
- C. Teaches that abstinence from sexual activity is the only certain way to avoid out-of-wedlock pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, and other associated health problems;
- D. Teaches that a mutually faithful monogamous relationship in context of marriage is the expected standard of human sexual activity;
- E. Teaches that sexual activity outside the context of marriage is likely to have harmful psychological and physical effects;
- F. Teaches that bearing children out-of-wedlock is likely to have harmful consequences for the child, the child’s parents, and society;
- G. Teaches young people how to reject sexual advances and how alcohol and drug use increases vulnerability to sexual advances;
- H. Teaches the importance of attaining self-sufficiency before engaging in sexual activity.”

ISDH/MCSHC recognizes that varying needs and priorities of local communities will result in the development of programs with significant variation. As indicated in the FY 2007 Application Guidance for the Abstinence Education Provision through the Administration for Children and Families, each element of A-H should be meaningfully represented in all grantee’s federally funded abstinence education programs and curricula. Programs and curricula may not be inconsistent with any aspect of the abstinence education definition.

In addition, the undersigned agrees to provide documentation (copies of lesson plans, material, etc.) of compliance to Indiana State Department of Health (ISDH) and/or Maternal and Children's Special Health Care Services (MCSHC) staff or contract staff designated by ISDH/MCSHC, upon request.

(c) NONDISCRIMINATION AGAINST RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS—In the event a State exercises its authority under subsection (a), religious organizations are eligible, on the same basis as any other private organization, as contractors to provide assistance, or to accept certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement, under any program described in subsection (a)(2) so long as the programs are implemented consistent with the Establishment Clause of the United States Constitution. Except as provided in subsection (k), neither the Federal Government nor a State receiving funds under such programs shall discriminate against an organization which is or applies to be a contractor to provide assistance, or which accepts certificates, vouchers, or other forms of disbursement, on the basis that the organization has a religious character.

(e) RIGHTS OF BENEFICIARIES OF ASSISTANCE—

- (1) IN GENERAL—If an individual described in paragraph (2) has an objection to the religious character of the organization or institution from which the individual receives, or would receive, assistance funded under any program described in subsection (a)(2), the State in which the individual resides shall provide such individual (if otherwise eligible for such assistance) within a reasonable period of time after the date of...that is accessible to the individual and the value of which is not less than the value of the assistance which the individual would have received from such organization.
- (2) INDIVIDUAL DESCRIBED—An individual described in this paragraph is an individual who receives, applies for, or requests to apply for, assistance under a program described in subsection (a)(2).
 - (f) EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES—A religious organization's exemption provided under section 702 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C.2000e-1a) regarding employment practices shall not be affected by its participation in, or receipt of funds from, programs described in subsection (a)(2).
 - (g) NONDISCRIMINATION AGAINST BENEFICIARIES—Except as otherwise provided in law, a religious organization shall not discriminate against an individual in regard to rendering assistance funded under any program described in subsection (a)(2) on the basis of religion, a religious belief, or refusal to actively participate in a religious practice.

Glossary of Terms

Control Group – a group of adolescents similar to your program participants in age, education, and background, but that do not participate in your program.

Indiana RESPECT – Indiana Reduces Early Sex and Pregnancy by Educating Children and Teens

Matching Funds – at least 75% of the award for federal grantees and 30% of the award for state grantees; the dollars a project assigns to support the State or Federal RESPECT funded service

In-Kind Contribution – those non-cash items provided to your agency for free, which have a monetary value, that your agency is offering as match. Examples:

- An outside entity will provide space for your program activities at no cost to your agency. Calculate the value of the space the same way you would calculate space paid for by your agency as cash match.
- Volunteers will provide services for your program participants at no cost to your agency. Calculate and document volunteer hours the same way you would if these were employees.

In-Kind Contributions may only be considered match with ISDH approval.

Program Expenses – any expense included in the budget that the RESPECT project proposes to be funded by Indiana RESPECT funds or matching dollars (includes staff, supplies, space costs, etc.)

APPENDIX D

Human Subjects

The Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) regulations for the protection of human subjects provide a systematic means, based on established internationally recognized ethical principles, to safeguard the rights and welfare of individuals who participated as subjects in research activities supported or conducted by the DHHS. The regulations require that applicant organizations establish and maintain appropriate policies and procedures for the protection of human subjects. These regulations, 45 CFR 46, Protection of Human Subjects, are available from the Office for Protection from Research Risks, National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, MD 20892.

The regulations stipulate that an applicant organization, whether domestic or foreign, bears responsibility for safeguarding the rights and welfare of human subjects in DHHS-supported research activities. The regulations define “human subject” as a “living individual about whom an investigator (whether professional or student) conducting research obtains (1) data through intervention or interaction with the individual or (2) identifiable private information.” The regulations extend to the use of human organs, tissues, and body fluids from individually identifiable human subjects as well as to graphic, written, or recorded information derived from individually identifiable human subjects. The use of autopsy materials is governed by applicable state and local law and is not directly regulated by 45 CFR 46.

An applicant organization proposing to conduct non-exempt research involving human subjects must file an Assurance of Compliance with the Office for Protection from Research Risks (OPRR). As part of this Assurance, which commits the applicant organization to comply with the DHHS regulations, the applicant organization must appoint an institutional review board (IRB), which is required to review and approve all non-exempt research activities involving human subjects.

Exempt from coverage by the regulations are activities in which the only involvement of human subjects will be in one or more of the following six categories:

1. Research conducted in established or commonly accepted educational settings, involving normal educational practices, such as (i) research on regular and special education instructional strategies, or (ii) research on the effectiveness of or the comparison among instructional techniques, curricula, or classroom management methods.
2. Research involving the use of educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), if information taken from these sources recorded in such a manner that subjects cannot be identified, directly or through identifiers linked to the subject.
3. Research involving survey or interview procedures, except where all of the following conditions exist: (i) responses are recorded in such a manner that the human subjects can be identified, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects; (ii) the subject’s responses, if they became known outside the research, could reasonably place the subject at risk of criminal or civil liability or be damaging to the subject’s financial standing or employability; and (iii) the research deals with sensitive aspects of the subject’s own behavior, such as illegal conduct, drug use, sexual behavior, or use of alcohol. All research involving survey or interview procedures is exempt, without exception, when the respondents are elected or appointed public officials or candidates for public office.

4. Research involving the observations (including observation by participants) of public behavior, except where all of the following conditions exist: (i) observations are recorded in such a manner that the human subjects can be identified, directly or through the identifiers linked to the subjects; (ii) the observations recorded by the individual, if they became known outside the research, could reasonably place the subject at risk of criminal or civil liability or be damaging to the subject's financial standing or employability; and (iii) the research deals with sensitive aspects of the subject's own behavior such as illegal conduct, drug use, sexual behavior, or use of alcohol.
5. Research involving the collection or study of existing data, documents, records, pathological specimens, or diagnostic specimens, if these sources are publicly available or if the information is recorded by the investigator in such a manner that subjects cannot be identified, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects.
6. Unless specifically required by statute, research and demonstration projects which are conducted by or subject to the approval of the DHHS, and which are designed to study, evaluate, or otherwise examine: (i) programs under the Social Security Act, or other public benefit or service programs; (ii) procedures for obtaining benefits or services under those programs; (iii) possible changes in or alternatives to those programs or procedures; or (iv) possible changes in methods or levels of payment for benefits or services under those programs. However, if following review of proposed research activities that are exempt from these regulations under this paragraph, the Secretary of the DHHS determines that a research or demonstration project presents a danger to the physical, mental, or emotional well-being of a participant or subject of the research demonstration project, then Federal funds may not be expended for such a project without the written informed consent of each participant or subject.

APPENDIX E

Instructions for Form A: Unduplicated Count of Clients Served

Purpose of the Form

The purpose of Form A is to track and report the unduplicated number of clients served for each program year. Each client is counted only once.

General Instructions

Complete each cell in Form A for an unduplicated number of clients served in all programs funded by Indiana RESPECT except for media campaigns.

In determining the age of a client, use the age of the client at the first point of contact during the program year.

If your program has served youth that are younger than 12 during the report period, include that data under the column “Other.”

If you are helping young adults in making decisions related to abstinence, and the young adults happen to be young parents, record these clients under their ages. The column for tracking services to parents (P) should be reserved for recording those efforts aimed at helping parents talk with their children about their children’s sexual choices.

If your program is implementing a media campaign, report such activities, and the numbers served, in the narrative of your program progress report.

Where the form asks for an Unduplicated Count of All Others Served, this count includes the column totals for “P” (parents) and “O” (others).

Please include the number of pregnant (number of self-identified pregnant teens 19 and under provided education or counseling in a distinct program provided for pregnant and/or parenting adolescents) and parenting (number of self-identified parenting teens 19 and under provided education or counseling in a distinct program provided for pregnant and/or parenting adolescents) teens that you serve during your programming where indicated on the form.

Reporting Form Narrative

Submit with forms A-D one narrative that describes any elements that need to be explained. For example, the narrative may describe:

- clients served through media activities;
- groups that have been combined under “Other” on Form A; or
- hours of service received by clients outside the age ranges of 12-18 or 19-29.

Organize the narrative in the order of Form A through Form D, and use headings to clearly identify which form the narrative is describing.

Instructions for Form B: Hours of Service Received by Clients

Purpose of the Form

The purpose of Form B is to track and report the total number of “program hours” that clients ages 12-29 have received during the report period.

For example, a grantee may provide 1,000 ninth grade students with a 20-hour curriculum program while also providing 5,000 other youth with a one-hour event. Form B allows the grantee to report these numbers in greater detail, rather than averaging the program hours together. Averaged together, the result would show that 6,000 youth received an average of 4 hours of service, which would not clearly represent the nature of the programs. A more detailed report of the example is captured in the sample table rows below.

Number of Program Hours Received	By 12-18 year olds	By 19-29 year olds
1	5,000
20	1,000
Total 12-18	6,000

General Instructions

Indicate the number of clients, by age group, who received the total number of “program hours.” Only fill in the rows that apply to your program.

A “program hour” is a one hour session, and all sessions should be rounded up or down by the half hour. A session that lasts from 31 to 90 minutes should be counted as one program hour. A three hour event should be counted as three program hours. For example, if 450 youth each attended every session of a course comprised of 5 program hours, and received no other services during the reporting period, it should be recorded that 450 youth received 5 program hours.

For clients that receive services from multiple programs, program staff must add the hours received together so that only one number of program hours received will be recorded for each client served. For example, if a student participated in 17 hours of a 20-hour curriculum program and also participated in a one-hour event, the total number of program hours for that student would be 18.

For clients that received more than 50 program hours, use the last nine rows to indicate the number of program hours received. Do not include any media campaign activities on this form. Rather, report such activities, and the numbers served, in the narrative of your program progress report.

The total number of clients served in each of the two age group columns should be equal to the unduplicated count of clients served for those age groups given at the top of this form and Form A.

Reporting Form Narrative

Submit with forms A-D one narrative that describes any elements that need to be explained. For example, the narrative may describe:

- clients served through media activities; or
- hours of service received by clients outside the age ranges of 12-18 or 19-29.

Organize the narrative in the order of Form A through Form D, and use headings to clearly identify which form the narrative is describing.

Instructions for Form C: Program Completion Data

Purpose of the Form

The purpose of Form C is to track and report the number of all clients that complete the various types of program(s) offered.

General Instructions

In the first column, list the types of programs offered by the grantee during the program year. A grantee may have several programs such as separate programs for middle school and high school students, events, or training programs, etc. Data should be recorded for each type of program with a distinct number of program hours. For example, if a program offers two after-school curriculum programs with one totaling 12 hours and the second totaling 24 hours, these should be recorded separately. However, if a grantee offers three after-school programs that all provide 15 hours of programming, the data for these should be added together and recorded in one row.

Grantees and sub-grantees should use the following names of program types in column one:

- In-class abstinence curriculum
- After school abstinence curriculum
- Parent education
- Training for abstinence educators
- Mentoring (one-on-one)
- Conference, retreat
- Rally, assembly
- Additional programs (youth presenters, drama, etc.)

For additional programs, name the type of program in column A, and describe it in the narrative.

In the second column, list the total number of program hours that are provided by each program type. A “program hour” is a one hour session, and all sessions should be rounded up or down by the half hour. A session that lasts from 31 to 90 minutes should be counted as one program hour, while 91 to 120 minutes should be counted as two, and so on.

In the third, fourth, and fifth columns, list the number of clients that completed at least 75% of the program above the total number of clients served for each of the age ranges indicated.

The total number of clients served by all programs, if they were to be added together, may be greater than the unduplicated count of all clients, as reported on Form A, if clients participated in more than one program.

Reporting Form Narrative

Submit with forms A-D one narrative that describes any elements that need to be explained. For example, the narrative may describe:

- clients served through media activities;
- groups that have been combined under “Other” on Form A; or
- hours of service received by clients outside the age ranges of 12-18 or 19-29.

Organize the narrative in the order of Form A through Form D, and use headings to clearly identify which form the narrative is describing.
